

AMBLESIDE ORAL HISTORY GROUP

Since 1976 we have recorded an Archive of over 450 interviews with memoirs from the 1880's to the present day, available at www.aohg.org.uk

Oral History – much more than mere facts...
Emotions of sadness, joy, triumphs and frustrations

Share these wonderful memories through one of our presentations

'THOSE WERE THE DAYS' SCHOOL LIFE IN THE 50's & 60's

Remembering school milk, the 11+ and Spotted Dick.

'THE BIG HOUSE'

A glimpse of what life was like both 'Upstairs & Downstairs' in various Lake District houses in the early 20th Century.

'THE GREAT WAR' AMBLESIDE'S STORY

A detailed look at life during the Great War and Ambleside's contribution.

'A SHORT STORY'

The story of Short Brothers Factory for the building and maintenance of Sunderland Flying Boats at White Cross Bay on Windermere during WW2 including tales and anecdotes from the village built for the workers and their families.

'THOSE WERE THE DAYS' EARNING A CRUST

A look at local employment and working conditions in the years preceding and following WW2.

'EMERGENCY' LIFE BEFORE '999'

How emergencies were dealt with in the early 20th century. Memories of the first motor ambulance, steam pump fire engine and family telephone exchange.

£50 per presentation - travel expenses may apply outside the local area.
For further information or to book a presentation please contact
Judith Shingler 015394 34640 07855909238 judith.shingler@btinternet.com